

To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of having Harry come into our organization for about 6 months now, and I have been consistently impressed with his dedication, kindness, and effectiveness as a volunteer. Harry has been donating his time to meet with some of our clients struggling with substance abuse to help them maintain substance-free living. In addition to providing emotional support, Harry has also given valuable life-skill suggestions to people. He has offered advice on work, keeping a calendar, managing money, and creating a schedule for recovery meetings. Harry's suggestions have been practical, effective, and incredibly helpful for the person he has been working with.

What sets Harry apart as a volunteer is his genuine passion for helping others. He truly cares about the people he works with, and he is committed to making a positive difference in their lives. He is patient, kind, and empathetic, and he has a gift for connecting with people. His ability to listen and understand the needs of others is truly remarkable. I have no doubt that Harry would be an asset to any organization or community service project. He is reliable, responsible, and always follows through on his commitments.

Harry is an exceptional volunteer with a heart of gold, and I am certain that he will continue to make a positive impact on the lives of those he works with.

Sincerely,
